Our Assembly Ticket.

Will the unprejudiced citizens of New-York ask themselves which Ticket presented for their suffrages comprises the men best qualified to represent them in the Legislature?

ROBERT SMITH has long been an active and prominent Mechanic of this City, has ably represented the Fifth Ward in Common Council, hareceived the largest Whig vote of the City ever cast for Congress, and in every relation has commended himself to the approbation and esteem of his fellow-citizens. As a heavy Stone-Cutter, he was early brought in collision with the State Prison Menopoly, and was one of the first to raise the banner of resistance to it. We believe he was Chairman of the first Anti-Monopoly Meeting even held in this City, and has ever since been energetic and efficient in the Cause. In him our Mechanics know they have a champion who can never be bought or swayed to desert their cause. JOSEPH BLUNT is an eminent Counselor of this City, intimately connected with its business and an early and ardent advocate of the Mechani cal and Manufacturing interests. As an earnest, enlightened advocate of PROTECTION to those in terests, he is well known to our whole People. He was the projector of the ANNUAL FAIR of the American Institute, which has done so much to advance and perfect the Manufactures of our City He not only projected it, but subscribed money from his own pocket to establish it. This is bu one of many occasions on which he has proved his devotion to our Ciry's interests by unostentations acts of private munificence for public good.

ELBRIDGE G. BALDWIN-our Mechanics know whether he proved a faithful and honest Representative of their rights and interests in the Legislature last winter. Who can say aught against his course? Where are George Weir and his Mechanic colleagues on the Tammany ticket last year? They are left off! Mechanics of New-York! rally for your faithful champion, ELBRIDGE G. BALDWIN!

HORACE ST. JOHN, SMITH DUNNING JACOB ACKER, JAMES B. BRINSMADE &c. &c. these men are known to our citizens-the are connected with the business and interests of New-York and have proved themselves worthy o her confidence. Freemen of our City! compare them with their Tammany competitors, and say which you ought to come out and vote for next CITIZENS OF OTHER COUNTIES! why do you linger in New-York? Hurry home and vote, and then return to your business. NEW-YORKERS! speak to any man who is staying here so as to endanger the loss of his vote! All hands to quarters!

UP JOHN McKEON modestly suggests a wish that the Whigs of the Sixth District should select another candidate for Congress! This is cool, conidering that John is not a resident in the District, and couldn't get nominated in his own. John, when the Whigs of that District want anothe candidate, they won't come down town for timber. as your folks have done. They have twenty good and true men among themselves, when they need them; but just now HAMILTON FISH is their man.

HOR. WALTER FORWARD, Secretary of the Treasury, leaves our City this morning on a brief visit to Connecticut. Hon. ISAAC FLETCHER, for some years member of Congress from the district in Vermoni now represented by Mr. MATTOCKS, and previously for some time member of the Vermont Legislature, died on the 19th ult. GEO. EICHELL is pledged to the one-term principle.

The Final Rally.

Burning with enthusiasm for the cause, and ready for the struggle that awaits them, the Whig Young men of New-York assembled in thousands last night at Washington Hall to respond to the nominations made by their Committees.

Long before the appointed hour the room was crowded to overflowing; and hundreds were forced to leave the house unable to obtain access. The feeling that was dominant was most hopeful and full of courage. If the same spirit pervades the city, we have no fear for the result among us. We ask our friends every where to arouse for the contest with the same noble enthusiasm which filled the Whige at the Hall last night.

On motion of Addison Dougherty, Esq., MOR-RIS FRANKLIN, Esq., was elected President. and the following gentlemen Vice Presidents and

The President on taking the Chair made his acknowledgements in a few remarks of thrilling eloquence-returning his thanks for the uniform kindness he had received from the Whigs of the city, and exhorting his brethren in the noble strife to press onward to the rescue of the principles they have so long and so ardently cherished, from the threatened pollution of their enemies.

W. W. WHITE, Esq. then presented the following Resolutions, prefacing them with a brief Address setting forth the transcendent importance of the election which is so near at hand. He summed up in an impressive style the great questions at issue between the two great political parties of the State and Nation-setting forth the necessity of PROTECTION to AMERICAN LABOR, of a sound NATIONAL BANK, of the LAND DISTRIBUTION, of this County of over three hundred-no postpone-LIMITATION OF EXECUTIVE POWER, the introduction of ECONOMY and PURITY into all departments of the National Government, and declaring that the Whigs of New-York need make but a single powerful effort to redeem their State and the land from the ruin which already threatens it from Loco-Foco supremacy. He urged all who heard him to omit no exertions for the success of the Whig Nominations in the City of New-York. Their action now would not only speak loudly their senti. ments in support of the principles of the Whig party, but would be received as indicative of the popularity of their leader and their pride, HEN-RY CLAY of Kentucky. His remarks were received with the loudest applause. He then presented the following Resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation:

Resolved, That the Democratic Whig Assembly Ticket meets with our warmest approval; that in the candidates we recognize able, ardent and firm Whigs who will be faith-tu and true to the interests of our State, do honor to our city, and are in every respect worthy of the united and enthusiastic support of our party.

Resolved, That the entire Whig ticket for the present

Election commends itself to our earnest approbation—that we see in it every thing to encourage—that, whether we regard the strength, its worth, its true and able representaregard the strength, its worth, its true and able representa-tion of the various interests of our city, we give to it our mosthearty support, our undivided efforts—that more than common exertions are due from us to our party, by reason that they have honored the Young Men of New-York by taking from their ranks candidates for the National and State Legis' ature—that while we gladly respond to the nom-ination of J. Phillips Phænia and John H. Williams, we exprement with grateful price that Hamilton Seen and remember with grateful pride that HAMILTON FISH an JOHN B. Scoles are their companions and fellow candi

Resolved, That as Whigs and residents of the City and County of New-York, we feel and deeply feel the vital im-portance of electing our candidates for the Legislature— insuring a speedy revival and continuance of the Whig y and Measures so shamefully arrested at the last reg-session of that body by a Loco-Foco majority, and which we deem indispensible to the growth, prosperity and which we deem indispensing to the growth, prosperity and well being of our city.

Resolved, That as Whigs and citizens of the State of New York, we earnestly desire the election of a U. S. Senator and Members of Congress in favor of Protecting American Labor; in favor of a National Bank which can furnish a sound and uniform Currency; is favor of an equitable dis-tribution of the proceeds of the Public Lands; and to se-cure this great object we will lend our every effort to the work, with a fixed determination that our Assembly and Congressional tickets shall be successful.

Resolved, That we sincerely repent of our apathy and short comings in duty in 1841, and as humble penitents and ardent Whigs and patriots we will now rise in our might and help to proclaim a majority through the ballot box that will speak shame and confusion to the arch traitor and his

of our prominent men but serves to warm our bosoms with indignation and fill us with new and increased zeal and energy for the approaching contest.

Resolved, That, as a portion of the Whig party, we stand where we have ever stood—true to our country, our prin-ciples and ourselves; and where, too, we will continue to stand and streggie until the personification of treachery falsehood and fickleness, now reigning with absolute tyranny through an unjust and iniqui ous exercise of the Veto Power, shall be displaced and scouted into obscurity by the triumphant election of the poblest champion and advocate of measures and party-that pure, consistent, and undevi-

Hon. WILLIAM HALSTED of New-Jersey was then introduced, and received by the Assembly with shouts of applause. He alluded in tones of stirring eloquence to the noble stand taken by his gallant State in defence of the principles of the great Whig party. She had first set herself, as a bulwark not to be swept away, against the onward tide of Jacksonism, which swept over the land like a flood. The same spirit which had kindled the fires of liberty in the hearts of their ancestors was then aroused, and it was yet alive among the dwellers on her blood-stained hills. She had then put herself in the front of the battle; she did so now, and she wished to ask her friends, the Whigs of New-York, if they would wheel into line and STAND FIRMLY BY HER SIDE.

He spoke of the infamous outrage to which his State had once been subjected from Loco-Focoism and with grateful acknowledgements brought to mind the sympathy they had then received from their brethren of New-York.

He reviewed rapidly the history of legislation during the Extra and recent Sessions of Congress and urged the necessity of action-prompt and efficient-to prevent the REPEAL OF THE EXISTING TARIFF-one which does more for the Protection of American Industry than any ever before enacted. He scouted the idea that a Tariff for Protection was injurious to the interests of merchants. It gave to their patrons the ability to pay and this was the true source, he said, of every merchant's profit and success.

Just as Mr. Halsted had concluded, a Procession came in from the Sixth District, with music, torches, and banners inscribed with various mottoes-among which were conspicuous. "PROTEC-TION TO AMERICAN LABOR," "A PROTECTIVE TARIFF IS THE RIGHT ARM OF AMERICAN IN-DUSTRY," and "JUSTICE TO HARRY OF THE WEST."

The Band played several fine pieces, two or three other speakers made brief addresses, when the meeting, with nine cheers for HENRY CLAY, adjourned TO THE POLLS!

THON. DANIEL WEBSTER yesterday at 11 o'clock was waited on by many hundreds of his friends in this city at the Governor's room in the City Hall. A hundred guns were fired from the Park, in front of the Hall, in honor of the ratification of the Treaty. At a little after 1 o'clock Mr. WEB-STER was briefly addressed, in a complimentary manner by the President of the Board of Commerce upon the steps of the Hall, from which he made a brief speech, in reply to some thousands who assembled to hear him. His remarks were confined entirely to topics growing out of the reference that had been made by the Board of Commerce to the Treaty which he had been engaged in negociating-to the successful introduction of moral power, as an effective influence, into international intercourse and the general subjects which had been considered in the Treaty discussions. In conclusion he spoke in a highly complimentary manner of the enterprise of the city of New-York, especially as manifested in the successful completion of the Croton Aqueduct. His speech, though very appropriate as a reply to the address that had been presented to him, had no great general interest. We understand that Mr. WEBSTER will leave immediately for Washington.

Depend upon it Old CAYUGA is wide awakeher citizens are up and doing-the yecmanrythe bone and sinew of the county are aroused indeed; no local jealousies exist, no partial feeling, er particular wishes predominate, other than the maintenance of true Democratic Whig principles, or their equivalent, the best good of the Countrythe greatest good to the greatest number. Well, Pleb. why don't you take a dose of your own medicine, and publish and advocate the 'regular candidates' nominated at Tammany Hall? Why is your Assembly Ticket dropped? Why are you and all the prominent wire-workers now engaged in machinations to defeat one of the 'regular candidates?" So long as the rule works in favor of the packed candidates, you "go it with a perfect looseness," but when it happens to favor the Working Men, you repudiate your own doctrines and unite to defeat the "regular candidates."

The American thinks it was wrong to publish an extract from a private letter of Wm. C. Bouck on the Erie Railroad question. With submission, we think differently. Such a letter can only have been written with a leliberate intent to secure unfair advantage in the pending Political Contest-to make the People of the South-West believe that the writer would urge the completion of the New-York and Erie Railroad, while the rest of the State understands the contrary. Such knavery as this-and it has characterized the whole canvass on the part of our opponentsought to be exposed; and if we find any authentic documents calculated to expose it we shall publish them. We would as soon scruple at publishing any other kind of cheating as this.

Fourth Congressional District.

At a large and emhusiastic meeting of the Whig Electors of the Fourth Congressional District. held, pursuant to notice, at Columbian Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 4th, at half-past 7 c'clock. for the purpose of responding to the nomination of the Convention-on motion, Dr. B. DRAKE was called to the Chair; Messrs. CONRAD SWEET, Dr. James R. Wood, Thomas Kennedy, and OBADIAH NEWCOMB, Jr., were appointed Vice Presidents; and REUBEN E. Moss and DANIEL

H. MILLER Secretaries. The call of the meeting being read and adopted, Mr. ATWELL offered the following Report, which was unanimously approved.

To the Democratic Whig Electors of the Fourth Congressional District : Fellow Citizens : The Convention which you have created and charged with the duty of selecting a suitable candidate for your suffrages for the important office of member of the XXVIIIth Congress, from the Fourth Congressional District, have taken leave to call you together on this occasion to repeat to you the result of their labors, and the determination of their collective judgement in the matter which you have confided to their charge. They have had frequent meetings and have faithfully endeavored to discharge their duty in such a manner as should secure to them that richest of rewards a representative body can enjoy, that of the ap robation of their constituents; and, with your leave, they will look upon the ultimate result of the election, in refer ence to the candidate they propose, as well as to your pre sent expression, for the full measure of approbation which ball be meted out to them. They have selected a man whom they believe, if the con stituency of the Fourth District act according to the dictates of an honest judgement, unbiassed by party prejudice, will be elected by a bandsome majority, such as he certainly

They offer you the name of one who is a sound, thorough and consistent Whig; who, born in our own city, has been associated many years successfully with our mechanic and manufacturing interests, and prefers to encourage and pretect our own Free Industry, rather than permit it to be depressed and destroyed by a direct and disadvantageous competition with pauperized Europe. We offer you the name of one who believes that, in order to develop the resources of our vast country in a regular and systematic manner, we should extend our countenance and aid by every consistent and prudent measure of internal improve

Retiring in his babits, bonest and upright in his dealings and respected in private life-the Convention found him one of the few who avoid office, even when sought out by his fellow-citizens as by his intelligence and sound judgement rendered a suitable person to receive their suffrages; and being—as he is—opposed to mingling sectarianism with politics, the Convention think that a justly severe rebuke would, by his election, be administered to the demagogue opposed to him,-who, experience shows, is ever ready to barter away our political birth-right to ensure his own advancement. We offer you the name of JOHN H. WIL-LIAMS of the 7th Ward; -and we believe if more is necessary to be said we cannot better do it than in the lan ruage of the immertal Henry Clay :-

He is in favor of 'a Sound National Currency, regulated by the will and authority of the Nation-an adequate Rev enue, with fair Protection to American Industry-just restraicts on the Executive Power, embracing a further restriction of the exercise of the Veto-a faithful administration of the Public Domain, with an equitable distribution of the Proceeds of the Sales of it among all the States-ar bonest and economical administration of the Government leaving public officers perfect freedom of thought and of the right of suffrage, but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections-and an amendment of the Constitution, limiting the incumbent of the Presidential office to a single term.

The following communication from John H WILLIAMS, Esq., was then read and received with the most enthusiastic applause and approbation:

Fellow-Citizens of the Fourth Congressional District : The Report of your Nominating Committee, which pre sents my name for your suffrages as Representative in Congress from this District, while it calls for the expression of my most heartfelt acknowledgements, places me in a posi tion in which justice to myself as well as to the cause, seem to sanction a few words by way of explanation. To all who know me I need not say that the distinguished honor con ferred upon me is not one of my own seeking. If I know my own heart, it has never had an aspiration beyond the walks of private life, and has ever found its most congenial element in the quiet joys of home and the retirement of th domestic circle.

But, Fellow-Citizens, in the use that has been made of the name of the humble individual who addresses you, I appre bend that the design has been mainly to afford to our fellow citizens in this District, without distinction of party, an op portunity to express their views upon a principle which, an evil hour, was permitted to exercise its baneful influence in our Halls of Legislation, and which, if sanctioned in th person of its most zealous advocate, will be but the prelud to greater outrages, that will one day involve in one com mon ruin the free lastitutions of our Country.

What, I would ask, is the history of the passage of the School Bill, at a late Session of our State Legislature Upon the eve of an important and exciting Election the oc casion is chosen, by a numerous body of our fellow-citizens united in the bonds of a common faith, to press their claims for the redress of alleged grievances in the operation of our System of Common School Education; and our Legislators are distinctly sold, that unless the boon is granted, the screw of spiritual domination will be put in requisition, and each true son of the Church be compelled to withhold his sup sort from the party that refuses to do his bidding.

What then, let me ask, should have been the course of ev ery true heart in that Legislature at this attempt to overawe the public will? I anticipate your answer. I anticipate the answer of every patriot heart, whether it glows in the sosom of a Whig,or lights up with its flame the breast of an nonest Democrat.

A petition, presented under such a menace, should have been burled back with indignant scorn, and those who presented it, told to go home and study the spirit of our instituions better, and when they had learned the lesson well, re urn, and their prayer should receive a respectful hearing. But what was the course pursued upon that occasion, and what the scene presented in what we might presume to be that dignified body, the Legislature of the great State of New-York? Why, with indecent haste, the humiliating pectacle was exhibited of men who were willing, for the paltry consideration of a few additional votes, to immolate the holy cause of Education, and lay the proud bonor of our State a prostrate victim at the feet of organized Sectarian demination.

And here let me pause to ask what was the operation of his system of our public schools at the precise time when hese changes of abuses and grievances were alleged against it. You all know, for thousands of your children vere at that moment enjoying its benefits.

Was it not beyond all question the most perfect and beau tiful system for the instruction of youth, that the wisdom o an had ever devised? As free from abuses of any kind as any human institution could be and enjoying the entire confidence of the whole mass of our fellow citizens, by whatever religious name distinguished, with the single exception alluded to. Has the attempt to improve it made it any bet, ter? On the contrary, is not the fact staring us in the face that unless altered or essentially modified it will work its entire destruction.

On acts which lead to consequences such as these, and on hose who were foremost in their execution, you are called ipon to stamp the seal of reprobation.

I have not the vanity to suppose that the concededly large majority of our political opponents in this District can be vercome; but in a community of Republicans, by whatev. er other name distinguished, we have a common interest in reserving inviolate the free institutions inherited from our athers, and according to the fidelity with which we dis charge the sacred trust, will our posterity in ages yet un porn rise up and call us blessed.

In regard to the other great questions which occupy the public minds, it may be proper to state that an experience of more than twenty years has satisfied me of the indispen sable necessity, to a return of our national prosperity, or some measures which will equalize and establish upon a ettled basis the currency of our widely extended country. That fair and adequate Protection of American Labor. which will give to the working classes of our country im munity from the rainous competition of the crowded work thops of Europe, will ever find in me an humble advocate On the other topics, of lesser interest, I hold the sentiments of the Whig party, whose Creed is read and known of all men. And, as the uncompromising exponent of all those principles, and as the champion of those interests which are purely American in their character, I am in favor of the elevation of the veteran Patriot and Statesman of the Vest, the Hon. HENRY CLAY, to the Presidential Chair. With sentiments of great respect, I have the honor

The meeting was then addressed by JOSEPH HOXIE, JOHN C. HAMILTON and CONRAD SWEET. Esqs., in strains of the most impassioned eloquence and heart-stirring appeals, which were lisexed to with breathless silence by the vast assemplage, interrupted only by repeated and deafening cheers.

The following Resolutions were then read and unanimously adopted:

Congress are as follows : Edward Cross, (Loco-Foco)....5,909 William Cummins, (Whig).....3,638 Lewis D. Evans, (Independent).. 842

The vote is very light, and by no means exhibits the strength of the Whig party. Mr. Cummins is a volunteer candidate, who has run before, and the Whigs generally were not anxious to elect him. For example, Washington County, which elects the Whig Senator by 17 majority, and two Whigs to three Locos for Assembly, gives for Congress-Cross 669; Cummins 259; Evans 178.

For the Legislature, we have returns of 4 Whig Senators, 5 Loco and one 'National Bank Democrat;' to the House 14 Whigs, 20 Locos, two ties and one County (White) contested and no return.

Family Troubles. To the Editor of The Tribune:

I do n't doubt that your friend "Consistent flatters himself that the Workingman's Ticket in Brooklyn will get perhaps 50 votes. But I tell him, and you too, that when H. C. Murphy and John A. Lott look ever their Bank Stock they will ump from their cushioned chairs, put on an old coat and a rusty pair of boots, take a long whip and go among these REBELS, and coax, flatter and ick every mother's son of them into their proper places, and when they get their certificate of election, will coolly ask for an addition to the capital of their own Banks. Pomeroy & Co.'s Express .- Less than eighteen months ago, the first attempt was made to run a Package Express from Albany to Utica, which failed, to our cost; the man engaged in it running in our debt by its means for newspapers, which he was unable to pay for.

Since that time, the Harndens have spread their net-work of regular Expresses over all the Northern Atlantic coast, reaching inland to Albany; and now Messra Pomerov & Co. have extended and perfected their interior line of Daily Expresses, resting on this City but having its central point at Albany, until now any package of Merchandise, Money, Papers, &c., may be sent to or obtained from Buffalo, Toronto, or any intermediate point, with regularity and certainty, and at a very moderate charge. By a connection with Hawley & Co.'s Express in the West, the line is extended on the West to Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, &c.; while on the East, through its connection with the Harndens, it communicates regularly with Boston. Halifax, and the Commercial ports of Europe. The partners in the concern are men of known integrity and business energy, who do the work hemselves, and of course know that it is well done Their enterprise is a great public accommodation and we trust our merchants remember to patronize and sustain it. The office in this City is at Harnden's, 7 Wall-street.

Sanda's Sarsaparilla.—"King's Evil," so called from an imaginary cure said to be performed by the royal teach. This fatal disease makes its appearance on different parts of the body, but principally affects the glandhiar system in its commencement, from whence it proceeds to seize upon and utterly destroy the cartilages, ligaments and boses. The first symptoms are enlargement of the glands about the neck, under the chin and benind the ears, which continues to spread and increase in number, until the internal organs become affected, and the lungs, liver and messentery claude are enveloped in disease from which the patient a gans become affected, and the lungs, liver and messentery glands are enveloped in disease from which the patient is only relieved in his sufferings by the pale messenger of death. Sands's Sarsaparilla has been praved by actual experiment in a great variety of cases, to arrest and permanently cure this and similar complaints, such as servictions tumors, nodes or hard lumps, sleers, obstinate cutaneous eruptions, &c. From the peculiar combination of this valuable medicine, it operates on the system as the only true 'royal touch,' dispelling disease and restoring sound health, As such it is confidertly recommended to the affected.

BRISTOL'S SARSAFARILLA:

New-York, Oct. 29, 1842

Mr. C. C. Bristol—Sir: The motive that prompts me to address these lines to you, arises from a conviction paramount to that of mere praise of your valuable Sarsaparilla, for if that was my desire I should full in the attempt, for I feel as though it would require a more powerful pen than mine to do justice to the high claims of so valuable a medicine as Bristol's Sarsaparilla.

It is the obligation I owe as one of the vast tamily of man

It is the obligation I owe as one of the vast family of man to those, like myself, whose misfortune it has been to be afflicted as I have been for several years past, that induces me, without solicitation, to make known to the world what has been an effectual remedy when and where the hope of a cure was almost extinct.

I had been informed that you were to visit this city this fail, when I expected to have the pleasure of stating to you what your Sarsaparilla has done for me, but in this I was disappointed, you having left the city before I knew it; I have therefore taken this method to inform you, and through you. I who may desire to know what my afflictions were you, all who may desire to know what my afflictions were and also what has proved an articlite to the same.

I was attacked with Scrofula in a very alarming form about five years since, which spread rapidly throughoutny head, face and throat, internal and external; there were several holes in the roof of my mouth and about the palate which was nearly destroyed—my speech and hearing so much affected as to leave but little hope that those senses would ever return to me again as they now are. One of my ears was partly destroyed, my nose and the greater part of my face to all human appearance must meet the same fate.

My nerves were dreadfully affected so as to deprive me of rest or sleep that was any thing like natural, but as me frenzied I passed my sleepless nights and wearisome days. My lower extremities were deathly cold and manimate—My teet were greatly extended in size from what was called Dropsy, and in addition to this, for many years I was affected with Piles in their most severe, and distressing form fligted with Piles in their most severe and distressing form. which is no removed, together with most of my great af-flictions, through the use of your Sarsaparilia alone, after having the best medical trea ment the city afforder.

having the best medical treatment the city afforded.

I am now hearly well—my face has been saved, my mouth and throat healed, my speech and hearing restored, my sight improved, which was very doubtful, my sleep become natural and my appetite good; in a word, I am a different person in feeling and appearance, and there remains not a doubt but that Bristol's Sarsaparilla will effectually accomlish a thorough and lasting cure of all my afflictions.

I am at a loss for language and terms strong enough to speak of your Sarsaparilia as it deserves. It has been to me every thing—to it I owe the preservation of my life an-der the direction of a wise Providence, and were I capable I would proclaim to all the world what Bristol's Sarsap-rila has done for me. It will afford me pleasure stany time to informany person who may desire to know any thing I know of Bristol Sarsaparilla. OPHELIA GORDON. Yours respectfully, No. 10 Orange street.
